Suqian, with its long history, is a constellation of prominent figures and tourist attractions.

Suqian is the birthplace of Xiangyu, the King of Western Chu State. The Culture of Western Chu was born here and has since flourished. Xiangyu is the unique hero in history of ancient China who is not judged by success or achievement and awarded the title of hero. Inside the magnificent and solemn former residence of Xiangyu, an old locust tree planted around 2000 years ago by him is still straight and vigorous.

Numerous historical and cultural relics, with their own typical characteristics, cluster at Suqian. Historic buildings, including Hongxue Dacheng Hall of the Ming Dynasty, Residency of Earl Xiangyu awarded by an emperor of the Qing Dynasty and Daosheng Alai Shop look as though they were constructed yesterday. Anshun Dragon King Temple, also called Pemson Palace, of Emperor Qianlong is a rare ancient architectural complex in northern Jiangsu. Jie Monastery is among the major ones in east China. Sarawang Tombs and Shiong Chonggang Tombs of the Han Dynasty as well as ruins of Xiaotang, Ling, Suyu and Suqian are under excavation.

Relics of Xia Cao Wan: Homimids lived along Huai River around 50 thousand years ago. It's therefore one of the cradles of Chinese civilization.

Former Residence of Xiangyu: Xiangyu (B.C. 232–202), the King of Western Chu State was born here.
